"When I come in my glory with my angels, I will sit on the throne and all the peoples of the world will come to me," said Jesus. "I will separate them just like a shepherd separates the sheep from the goats, and puts the sheep on his right side and the goats on his left side.

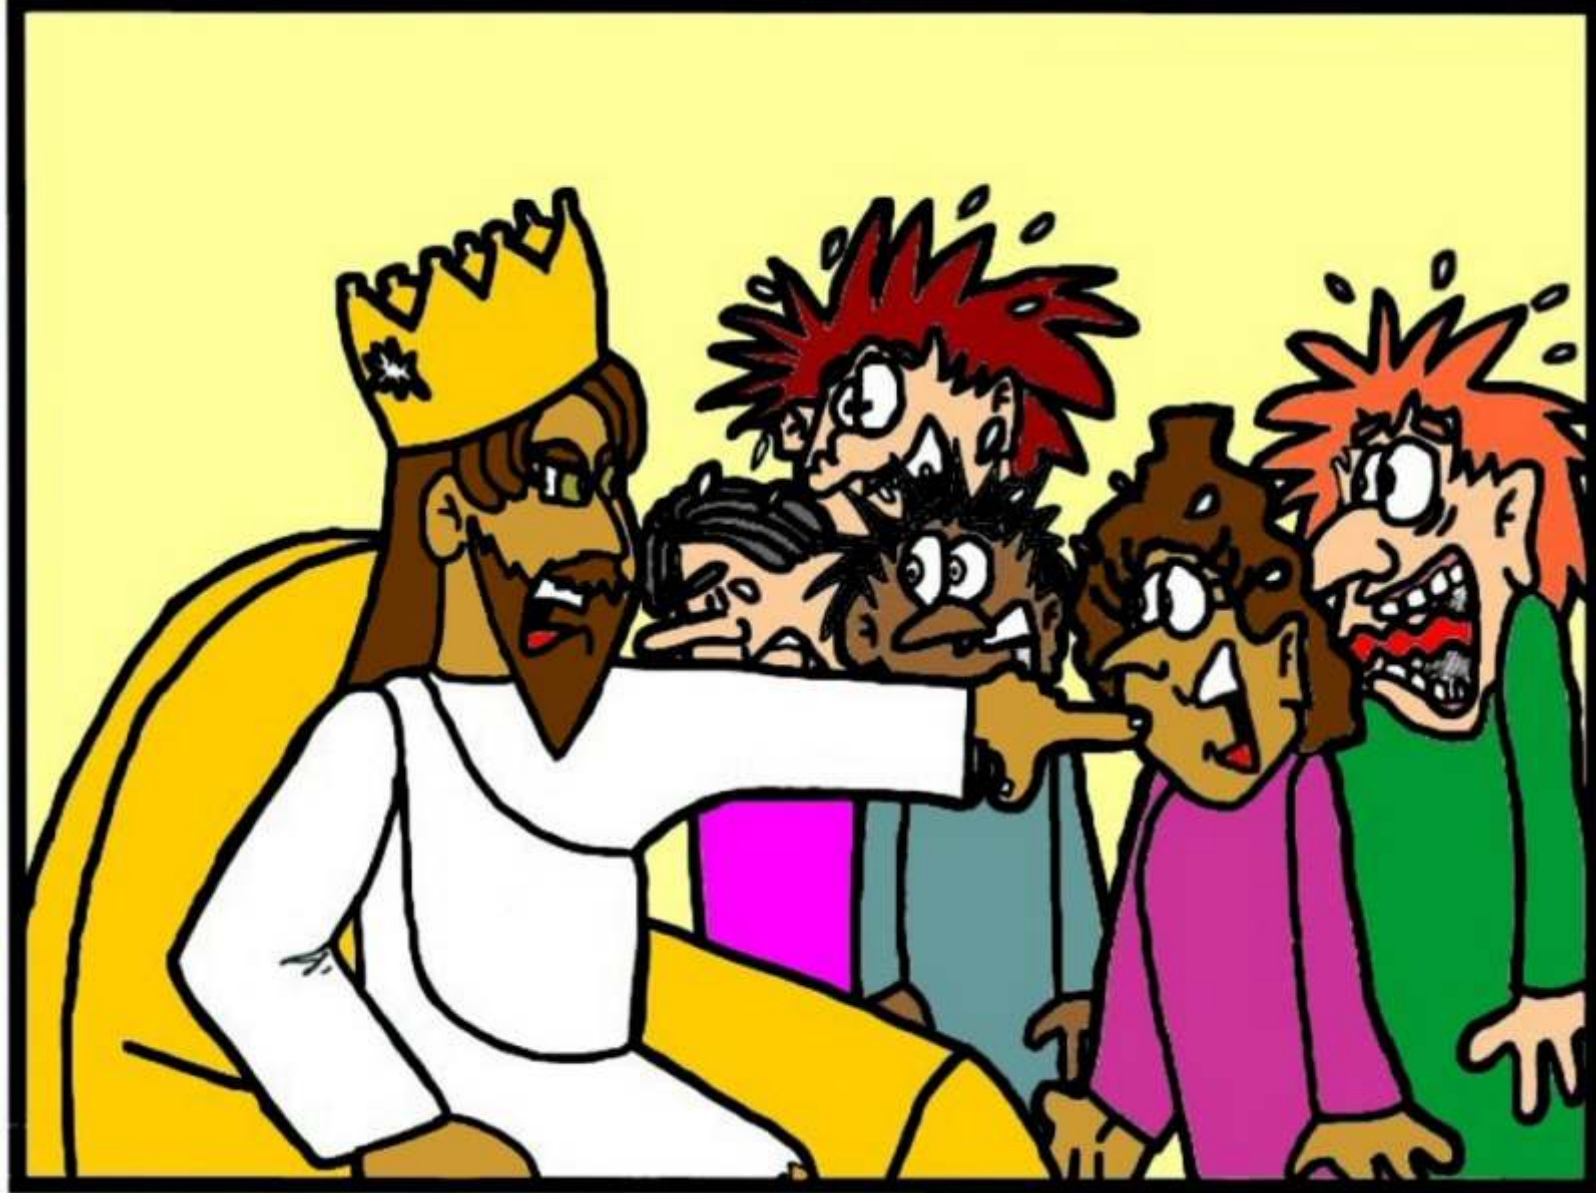

I will say to them on my right, 'Come and receive the kingdom that God has prepared for you. I was hungry and thirsty. You gave me food and drink. I was a stranger and you took me in. I was naked and you put clothes on me. I was sick, I was in prison and you visited me.'

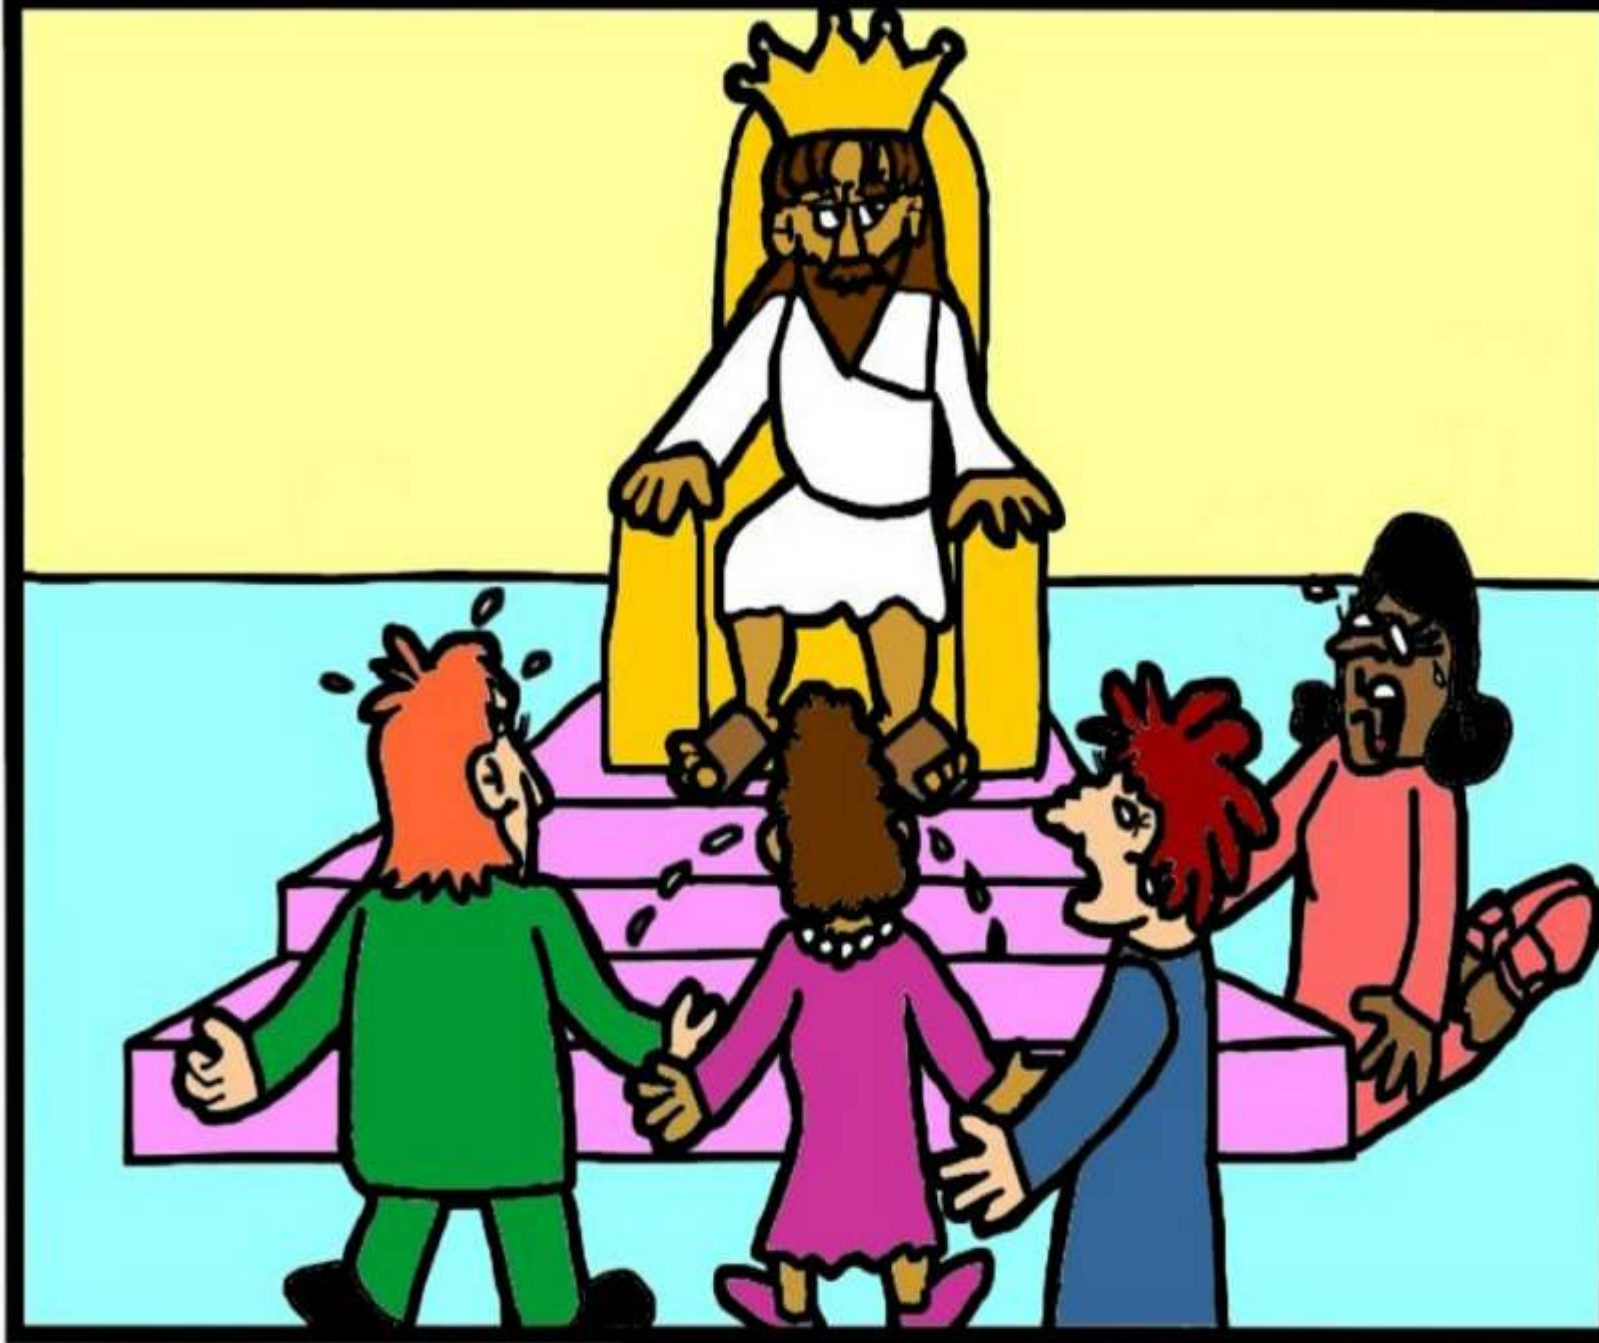

Then the good people will answer, 'When were you hungry and we fed you? When were you thirsty? When were you naked and we gave you clothes? When were you sick? When were you in prison?'

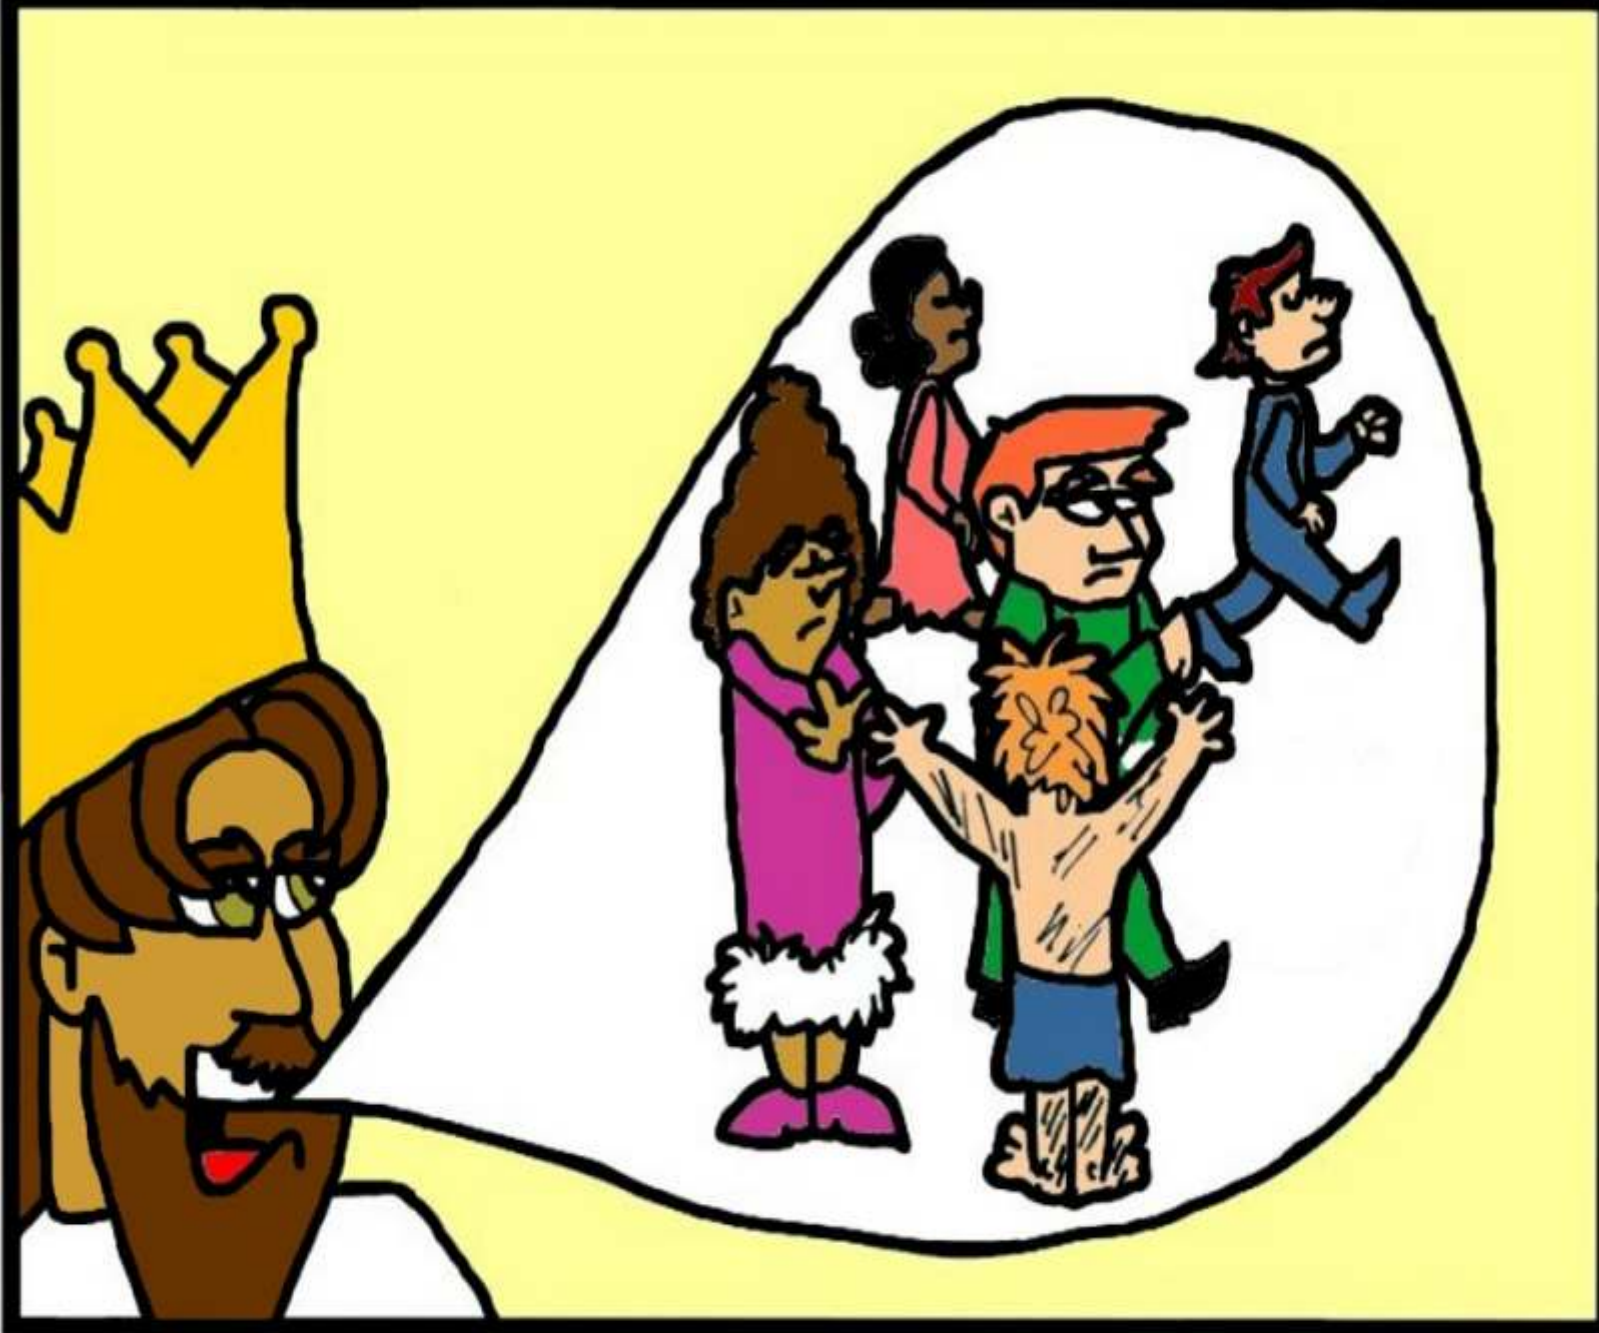

‘When you were doing it for my people, you were doing it for me’, I will answer.

Then I will say to the people on my left side, 'Get away from me you cursed people into the eternal fire which is prepared for the devil and his angels! I was hungry, thirsty, a stranger, naked, sick and in prison and you did not help me.'

‘When? When Lord?!!! When did we see you hungry or thirsty or a stranger or naked or sick or in prison and did not help you?’ the people on my left side will answer.

‘Truly I tell you, when you didn't do it for my people, you didn't do it for me,’ I will answer. And these will go away into eternal punishment.”

Lord, help me to do what I can to meet the needs of hurting people.
