

Wedding at Cana

(Based on John 2:1-12)

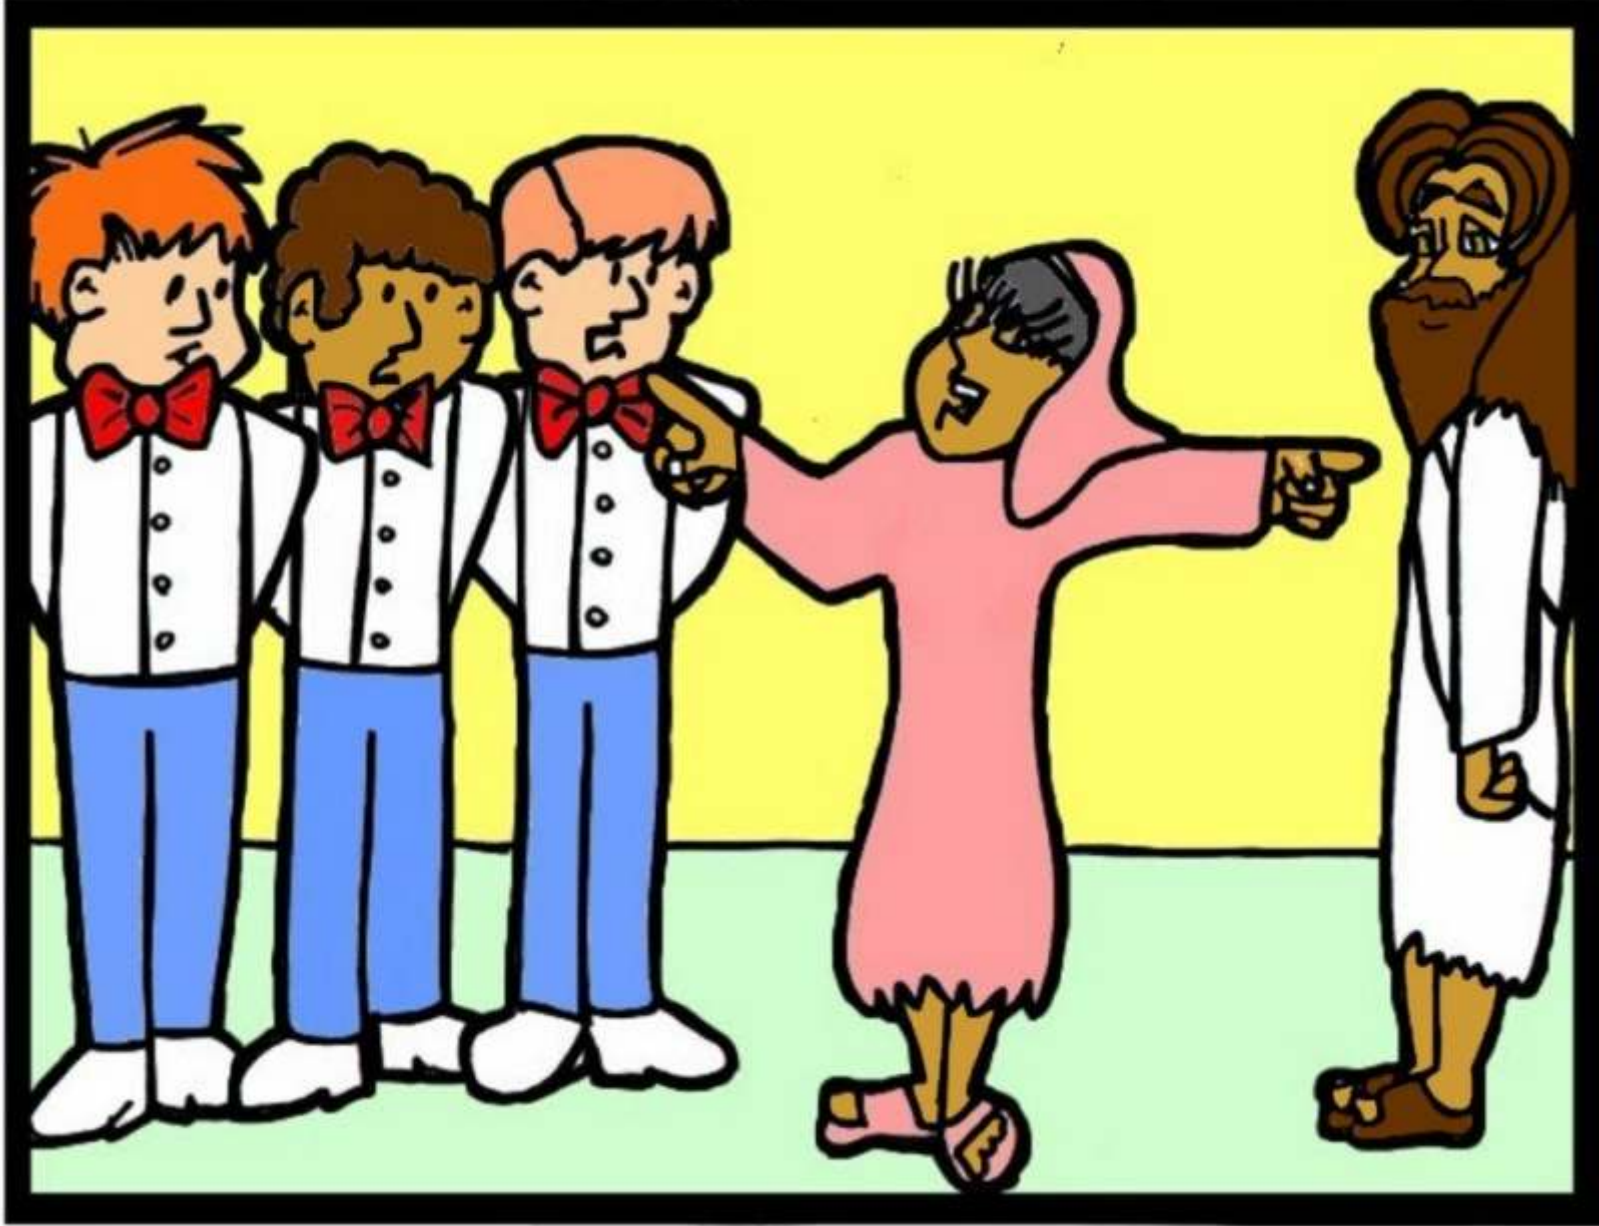

Copyright © 2007 Patricia Loranger

Now there was a wedding in a town called Cana in the district of Galilee. Jesus, his mom and disciples were all invited. Part way through the feast though, they ran out of wine to serve the guests.

“Jesus,” whispered Jesus’ mom.
“They have no more wine!”
“Woman, what does that have to do with me?” answered Jesus. “It isn’t the right time for me yet.”

“Servants,” ordered Jesus’ mom,
“Whatever Jesus says to you, do it!”

Now there were six big stone water pots. Each one could hold 20 or 30 gallons of water. The Jewish people used this water for cleaning.

“Fill these water pots with water,” commanded Jesus. The servants obeyed and filled them to the brims.

“Now take some out and take it to the master of ceremonies,” said Jesus.

The master of ceremonies tasted the water that had been turned into wine. He didn't know where it came from, but the servants who had carried the water knew. "Bridegroom!" called the master of ceremonies.

“Most people put out the good wine first and after everybody has drunk lots, then they put out the yucky wine. You saved the good wine until last! This is very yummy!” said the Master of Ceremonies.

This was the first miracle that Jesus did and he showed them his power and his disciples believed in him.

Lord, help me to obey you like those servants obeyed. Give me the courage to do my part so that you can do your part.